

Dr Diana Sands PhD Children Bereaved by Suicide Presentation

Date: Monday 12th May 2014

Time: 1pm – 3pm

Venue: The Salvation Army
202 Gallipoli Road, Carina, Brisbane

Dr Diana Sands is Director of the Centre for Intense Grief, Sydney and has for more than two decades worked as an educator, researcher and clinician. Diana has provided counselling following sudden, violent and traumatic death and in particular for those who have lost a loved one to suicide. Included in her work is presenting internationally and locally on her experience and research on “Walking in the Shoes Model of Suicide Bereavement”. She is also a prominent author on a number of other publications on loss and grief. This includes more recently a book and DVD titled Red Chocolate Elephants- a resource for parent and child to use together when facing the suicide of a loved one.

Bookings are essential as spaces are limited and this valuable academic session is free of charge.
